

Corporate and Community Fundraiser

Job Opportunity – Wyre Forest & South Worcestershire Nightstop and Mediation Service

We believe that every young person deserves a safe place to sleep.

Our MISSION is to prevent homelessness by empowering young people to reach their full potential.

Our VISION is to end youth homelessness in Worcestershire.

What we're looking for:

- An experienced and motivated individual to join our team in the exciting new role of Corporate and Community Fundraiser. Ideal for someone who strives to make a positive impact and can drive sustainable income generation to support our work across the Wyre Forest and South Worcestershire. Working alongside our dedicated staff, volunteers, and supporters you can help us take our organisation to the next level by developing this role.
- Do you have a proven track record of planning, organising, and delivering fundraising campaigns in the field of community and corporate fundraising?
- Do you have a strong knowledge of the Worcestershire area and are you the sort of person who can create and nurture strong relationships with people by tapping into different networks?
- Does your experience cover marketing, using social media and other mediums to create impactful fundraising events as well as promoting the services and outcomes of charitable work?

What we can offer you:

Role	Corporate and Community Fundraiser
Salary	Up to £30,000 per annum plus pension
Annual leave	25 days per annum
Location	Kidderminster with travel around Worcestershire and some opportunity for hybrid working.
Start Date	May/June 2024
Job Type	2-year contract initially, full time (35 hours) occasional weekends
